YVAN BAKER, MPP

Etobicoke Centre

November 15, 2014

I am pleased to extend my congratulations to the current members and alumni of the DESNA Ukrainian Dance Company of Toronto as you gather to celebrate your 40th anniversary.

DESNA's exhilarating celebration of dance, combined with exquisite costumes and traditional melody, has dazzled audiences throughout Canada, the United States and Europe for years.

Through your participation in DESNA you have not only successfully showcased the best that Ukraine's traditional repertoire has to offer, but you have used this as an inspirational springboard to introduce into your folklore inventory new and unique musical numbers and styles of dance.

DESNA has always placed great emphasis on community; hosting dance workshops with instructors from Ukraine and bringing together several of Toronto's Ukrainian ensembles to continue the tradition of Ukrainian dance. This reflects DESNA's valuable contribution to the building of a strong Ukrainian Canadian community and pride in the cultural heritage of Ukraine.

May DESNA continue to build on the legacy established over 40 years. May its next forty years bring the same delight to audiences worldwide.

Yours truly,

Yvan Baker, MPP

Letter From President

Dear Friends, Family, DESNA Members past, present and future!

On behalf of the Board of Directors, Company and Artistic Directors, I would like to welcome you this evening as we gather to celebrate 40 Years Strong: DESNA's 40th Anniversary Gala Celebration. We are delighted to be sharing this evening with fellow dancers and community members who have all contributed to the growth, success and prosperity of DESNA. We hope to see DESNA continue to move and grow through the generations and continue sharing the joy of Ukrainian dance.

Personally, I have found that the community that is DESNA, both past and present, are strong, open and welcoming. Since my arrival to the province, almost one and a half years ago, the DESNA community has welcomed me in, and has made me feel at home. Whether it be suggesting where to find the best kapusta or kolbasa in town, which boot repair business will be able to fix the hole I've managed to wear in my boot, helping with professional networking, or just providing a welcoming, friendly face in a city of strangers...DESNA has been there. I think that this quality of people and group cohesion is rare and truly a defining factor of DESNA which needs to be cherished and preserved.

A thank you is also in order to all of the Ukrainian Folk communities who have joined us this evening to celebrate. Whether they are here to relax and enjoy the festivities, or to join the Company on stage, Thank You. I sincerely hope that we can continue to work together to reach many more great milestones together as a greater dance community.

We also owe it to our DESNA founders and predecessors who established this inclusive environment to continue carrying out the pillars that the group was built on. It is because of these values of inclusivity and kindness that DESNA still exists and thrives today. To everyone who is here with us tonight, as well as for those who could only be here in our thoughts and memories - Thank you and Congratulations on 40 Years Strong! Mnohaya Lita!

Artistic Directors

For over 15 years, DESNA has had the privilege of working under the talented guidance of our inspiring artistic directors – Yuri and Luba Grekov.

Yuri and Luba have over 30 years of experience in Ukrainian dance performance, choreography, and instruction in both Canada and Ukraine. They are graduates of the Virsky National Academy of Dance in Kyiv, Ukraine. Yuri is also a graduate of the Academy of Executive Management of Culture and Art in Kyiv.

Yuri and Luba are professionally trained in international dances such as Spanish, Gypsy, Greek, Moldavian, Georgian and Mexican. They have performed with Krasnoyarsk Godenko Ballet, Kyiv's Virsky National Dance Company, Ukraine's "Hopak" Ensemble, and have toured across Europe and North America.

Upon first moving to Canada, Yuri and Luba, became the artistic directors of Rusalka Ukrainian Dance Ensemble in Winnipeg, Manitoba. At the same time they directed the Vesnianka Dance Ensemble at the Thunder Bay Ukrainian institute Prosvita from 1994 to 2007. Yuri and Luba are the essential source of artistic and creative vision of Desna. Yuri and Luba teach the Virsky style of Ukrainian dance, which encompasses in-depth ethnological knowledge and conveys the spirit and richness of Ukrainian dance.

In 2003 their mutual desire to unite Ukrainian dance communities throughout the world lead to the creation of the International Summer School of Ukrainian Dance in Kyiv, Ukraine. The program, Kyiv Summer Dance, at Virsky Studio exposes students to Ukrainian dance, culture, and history at the center of excellence in Kyiv. Mr. Grekov's role includes artistic direction of the program, organization of all events and excursions, and overseeing logistics for each summer session. DESNA is honoured to work under the artistic direction of Yuri and Luba Grekov, and is looking forward to many more years of inspiring artistic leadership.

History of DESNA

The Desna Ukrainian Dance Company of Toronto has a 40-year history that is as diverse and colourful as the dances it performs. As with every long-standing organization, the group has a factual history – and then there are the stories, often spread by proud family members of the performers and usually told in the latter part of a celebratory gathering. These accounts, like many tales of old, contain slivers of truth, but are transformed into pieces of the unofficial epic of Desna's history as they are told and retold with embellishments to yet another generation of dancers being welcomed into the Desna fold.

One of those tales takes place more than 35 year ago, Desna was no more than just an idea that was developed by two spirited Ukrainian fellows, who began contemplating some of the implications of Canada's recently established multicultural policy while watching TV. A great adventure – or misadventure according to some – followed and Desna was left in its wake. These two honourable gentlemen, Bill Balan and George Strohyj, will always be known as the founding members of what is now the Desna Ukrainian Dance Company of Toronto. All members of Desna, past and present, the Ukrainian-Canadian community and many enthralled audiences owe these men a debt of gratitude.

The 'Desna' name was selected by conductor Alexander Chmil (1972-76) from a choral piece performed by the original Desna Choir: a song about the enchanting Desna River in central Ukraine. The group's initial tour across Canada, sponsored by the federal government, took place in the summer of 1972. Upon its conclusion, the members decided that they wanted to continue as the Desna Choir. Two years later, the choir voted to create the Desna Ukrainian Dance Group, under the artistic direction of Andy Malette (1974-79).

The dance group debuted in 1976 to a standing-room-only audience at West Park Collegiate in Toronto. At that moment, those first Desna dancers sowed the seeds of a performing ensemble that would thrill audiences in several nations in the Western world. Desna toured France on two occasions in the mid-1980s under the artistic direction of Mark Olynyk (1979-87) and was invited to return there one more time under the artistic direction of Andrej Baczynskyj (1988-89).

40 Years Strong

New members kept joining the Desna ranks. Inspired by the feats of their predecessors, they showed they also had that same love for Ukrainian dance and ceaselessly aspired to contribute to the Desna Legacy. In the years that followed, Desna focussed its attention on broadening its fame in the Toronto community, performing in the hit Ukrainian-Canadian comedy Ukrainians on Broadway written by Ihor Baczynskyj, Ron Cahute, and Desna members. The group continued to expand its popularity in the Metro region through numerous television appearances, community shows, and cultural events. Under the artistic direction of Taras Pawluk (1992-95), Desna was requested to perform for Canada's 125th birthday celebration on national television before a live audience that included then Governor General Ray Hnatyshyn.

Desna continued to have an influx of new young talent, determined to show, through sweat, discipline and toil, that they too could and would add a chapter to the Legacy. Since 1999, Desna has had the good fortune of working with two experienced artistic directors and choreographers, Luba and Yuri Grekov. Their energy, passion, and dedication were contagious, and in the years that followed Desna members found themselves enjoying the same level of enthusiasm and drive that they had only heard of in tales about their predecessors in the ensemble. Yuri and Luba brought with them to Desna many years of professional knowledge, both acquired first hand and learned from the disciples of Pavlo Virsky, the "grandfather" of contemporary Ukrainian folk dance.

With the Grekovs' guidance, Desna has gained a noteworthy reputation across North America, resulting in a busy schedule of performances across the continent. In 2002, through an invitation from the Government of Canada, Desna had the great honour of representing the Ukrainian-Canadian Diaspora in a performance for Queen Elizabeth II during her 50th Jubilee celebrations in Toronto. In 2005, in conjunction with Yuri and Luba Grekov and former members of the Virsky Ukrainian National Dance Ensemble, Desna hosted a performance of a broad range of Ukrainian dance talent from Toronto to commemorate the 100th anniversary of Virsky's birth. This is but a very brief history of Desna, and without a doubt is just the beginning.

40 Years Strong

The DESNA School of Ukrainian Dance

DESNA is also happy and proud to witness the growth of its DESNA School of Ukrainian Dance. Re-opened in 2011, the school provides safe and fun environment for over 50 kids and young adults to celebrate Ukrainian heritage and learn the Virsky-style Ukrainian dance. Exciting and challenging, the classes are a great way instill confidence and discipline, keep in great physical shape and create friendships & memories that last forever. The DESNA School of Ukrainian Dance is dedicated to fostering growth, education and Ukrainian culture. There's nothing more rewarding than to give children a setting where they can develop as individuals and discover their traditional culture.

It is the goal of the DESNA School to provide a safe, positive and fun environment in which young dancers can learn and step up to a higher level of Ukrainian dance technique.
